

FEDERALS LAY DOWN ARMS TO REBELS

Four Officers and Number of Huerta Troops at Hermosillo Cast Their Lot With Constitutionalists; Federals Break In to Small Bands and Adopt Guerilla Methods.

CIUDAD, Juarez, Mexico, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—Federal troops are now beginning to adopt guerilla tactics, following the methods used by the Constitutionalists and other rebels during the revolution and have broken into small bands and taken to the hills. The first evidence of this new plan of warfare of the Huerta troops is the cutting of communication between this place and Chihuahua.

The Constitutionalists are in complete control here, though they are taking every precaution, apparently, against an attack. Federals are known to be at the south and southwest of here. Cutting of the lines of communication yesterday indicates that there are some Federal forces between here and Chihuahua.

Reports received from Hermosillo show that the Federals are surrendering and aligning themselves with the Constitutionalists. Four Federal officers and thirty-seven Federal soldiers laid down their arms at Hermosillo yesterday and surrendered to the Constitutionalists.

Provisional President Carranza of the Constitutionalists has his cabinet and is attempting to get his provisional government thoroughly established. Notification has already been sent to a number of nations, one of the features of which is notice to the world that any vessels captured bringing arms to the Huerta government will be destroyed. So far the Constitutionalists have no navy.

Reports from the City of Mexico last night indicated that the feeling of unrest continues there, that with the holiday season declared by Huerta in force, money is even scarcer than before and that there are signs of suffering among the poorer classes.

Stefansson Canadian Expedition Safe in Winter Quarters Awaiting Their Christmas Dinner.

OTTAWA, Canada, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—Frozen turkey, but baked to a turn and with all the accompaniments that go with a real Canadian Christmas dinner will be served on the ice fields of the Arctic Ocean tomorrow and all the members of the Stefansson expedition will be together to enjoy it.

This cheering news from the Canadian exploring party was contained in a letter received here yesterday.

It comes from M. Anderson, chief anthropologist of the Stefansson expedition, and announces, among other things, that all the scientists and members of the crews of the Alaska and Mary Sachs have arrived safe and that they are now together and snugly located in winter quarters at Collinson Point.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 23.—(By Associated Press Cable).—The Owen-Glass currency bill is now law. The senate passed the conference report this morning by a vote of forty-three to twenty-five and almost immediately afterward President Wilson signed the bill and made it a law.

The president used two gold pens signing the bill, presenting one to Congressman Carter Glass of Virginia and the other to Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, who directed its passage through both houses.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—With music and song Christmas will be celebrated in San Francisco tonight by thousands. The annual custom of carol singing, made popular by Teasdale a few years ago, will be followed. Indications are that the event will be in every way as successful as in the past.

A band of three hundred pieces has already been secured for the occasion, and some of the world's most noted singers, now at San Francisco, have volunteered their services to vocalists. The thousands who are expected to congregate around Union Square at the junction of Kearny street and Market street will join in the singing of the Christmas carols which hundreds have been rehearsing in preparation for this event for the past several weeks.

Widow of Madero Ready to Go to Mexico with Victors

Telegraphs to Carranza that She Is to Leave for El Paso to be Near When Huerta Is Overthrown.

NEW YORK, December 24.—Señora Francisco Madero, widow of the martyred President of Mexico, wired to Provisional President Carranza last night announcing that she is going to El Paso to be in reach of Mexican communication in the event of the capture of the City of Mexico by the Constitutionalists.

Mrs. Madero, who has been here since soon after the death of her husband and who has given practically all her fortune to financing the Carranza campaign in Mexico, in a statement yesterday said that she does not seek revenge so much as the happiness of seeing her adopted country restored to peace and with men having the welfare of the people at heart in control. She wants to be in the national capital, she said, when Huerta, the one whom she feels murdered her husband, is deprived of the despotic power he now wields.

Arrangements are being made to have her start for El Paso within the next few days.

YOUNG SPRECKELS IS FIGHTING WIFE'S SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, December 23.—(By Associated Press Cable).—John D. Spreckels, Jr., has filed an answer to the divorce suit brought by his wife, resisting the application for divorce and denying charges of cruelty and neglect.

SAN QUENTIN, California, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—James Hurley and Roy Melville escaped from the state prison here today. Hurley was serving a sentence of four years. Melville had been sentenced to twenty-five years. Both were convicted of robbery. Their escape was discovered soon after they disappeared. An alarm was sounded and officers from nearby towns are now scouring the country for the fugitives.

PORTLAND, Oregon, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—After three sensational trials, H. Von Kline, prominent in Portland, was convicted of larceny by a jury here yesterday afternoon. Von Kline's arrest grew out of his marriage to Ethel Newcomb at San Francisco in 1911. In his two previous trials the jury disagreed.

Democrats Will Ask Governor Pinkham to Make First Address as Chief Executive From Steps of Capitol.

Governor Pinkham is going to make a speech to the assembled Democracy of Honolulu on New Year's morning, from the steps of the Capitol, thus starting off the New Year and his administration at the same time. After the speech he will hold a reception, under the auspices of the National Democratic League, the Democratic Territorial Central Committee, the Democratic County Committee, a special committee of Democrats and the other Democratic organizations that have sprung into being since a year ago last November.

The national league was to have had a meeting last night, but a quorum failed to materialize and the meeting to complete arrangements to greet the Democratic Governor will be held on Friday evening at seven o'clock at the office of J. B. Lightfoot. At the gathering last night a cablegram from the Governor was read, in which he said that he would arrive on Wednesday and hold the New Year's reception noted above.

Immediately on receipt of this news, the Democratic county committee issued a call, addressed to the Oahu precinct clubs of Democratic faith, asking the members to gather in Emma Square on New Year's morning in order to march as a solid Democratic body to the Governor's reception.

The Honolulu, carrying Governor Pinkham, sailed from San Francisco last night at six o'clock, according to a cable message to the Guide. Attorney C. W. Ashford is also arranging an informal reception for Henderson S. Martin, Vice Governor General of the Philippines, who is due to reach Honolulu on the steamer Mongolia tomorrow.

One of Japan's Leading Educators, Making Brief Visit Here, Graduated With Wilson.

Dr. Shosuke Sato, one of Japan's most illustrious educators, and close mate of President Wilson, having graduated with the President of the United States from the Johns Hopkins University in the class of 1888, arrived in Honolulu on the Shinyo Maru from Yokohama yesterday and during his brief stay here is the guest of a number of prominent Japanese. These include S. Shoh, Doctor Katsunuma and others. Last night he was a guest at an informal luncheon at the Union Grill. Among the Americans present were Professor M. M. Scott and Rev. John W. Wadman.

Doctor Sato is president of the Sato College of Science and the Hokkaido College of Agriculture of Japan. He is on his way to the mainland to deliver a series of lectures at a number of the leading colleges. The National League of Japan will be his principal audience. He graduated from Johns Hopkins in 1888 and during his stay here is the guest of a number of prominent Japanese. These include S. Shoh, Doctor Katsunuma and others. Last night he was a guest at an informal luncheon at the Union Grill. Among the Americans present were Professor M. M. Scott and Rev. John W. Wadman.

DRYDOCK PLANS ARE UNDER WAY

Secretary of Navy Daniels Holds Conference With Attorney General McReynolds Relative to Responsibility for Carrying Big Project at Pearl Harbor to Completion.

WASHINGTON, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—An indication that the government is giving consideration to the problem of beginning the construction of the drydock at Pearl Harbor was given when Secretary of the Navy Daniels held a consultation with Attorney General McReynolds yesterday in relation to the status of the work.

Daniels, it is understood, conferred with the attorney general with a view of learning whether the responsibility of building the big drydock will rest entirely in his department.

The plans of the engineers showing the manner in which the project can be carried to completion together with an estimate of the cost have been on file in the navy department here for some time.

Superintendent of Public Works Breaks Plan at Joint Meeting of Supervisors and Harbor Commissioners.

Urging the immediate improvement of the waterfront, particularly between Fort street and the Bishop ship, the harbor commissioners yesterday noon gave their views to the supervisors in a joint meeting called to discuss ways of bettering the city's "entrances."

Chairman Caldwell of the harbor board announced that the commission had elaborated plans for a passenger wharf parallel with the Alakea street wharf and about where Bishop street would be cut through, and asked the board to immediately take up plans for extending that street to the side of the proposed wharf.

This wharf is part of the scheme of harbor improvement which the board designed when it first went into office and which it has consistently adhered to, having already completed the Richard street wharf, the Queen street wharf and the harbor oil pipe line.

The question of paying the wharf was also discussed at length, the supervisors promising to give their answer as soon as possible. Supervisor Petrie called attention to the fact that the land on each side of this thoroughfare was largely owned by the Territory and that if the supervisors put into force the frontage tax law passed by the last legislature, the Territory would have to pay a large part of the cost.

The question of the belt railroad line around the harbor, one of the features of the original improvement scheme, was also taken up, the harbor board agreeing to keep in repair that part of the street occupied by its tracks. Manager Ballentine of the H. R. T. & L. Company, who was also present, spoke briefly on the paving question, stating that his system would also be responsible for the portion of the street occupied by its tracks.

No definite decisions were reached by the supervisors, who, however, announced their intention of in this city governing the passage of automobiles to cars at a standstill, one prohibiting their doing so.

A. J. Gignoux then presented a resolution to the effect that the commission write Sheriff Jarrett, requesting information about this particular ordinance, whether it has been enforced or not, and if not to give his reasons, also as to whether the ordinance needs amendment.

The next meeting of the commission will be next Tuesday, when Chairman Mott-Smith will be home again and will preside.

WASHINGTON, December 21.—(By Associated Press Cable).—

Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday promulgated a new set of rules for enlisted men who are serving their first enlistment in the navy. The rules allow them to receive five minutes each day in which to devote to self-improvement. This will include any study or useful occupation or trade the enlisted men may care to take up and is to be done in the spare time after their first enlistment to prepare themselves for advancement.

Those who desire to benefit by the expiration of their first enlistment will be allowed to receive five minutes each day in which to devote to self-improvement. This will include any study or useful occupation or trade the enlisted men may care to take up and is to be done in the spare time after their first enlistment to prepare themselves for advancement.

Ella Flagg Young Again At Head of Chicago Schools

Dandit Who Held Up Southern Pacific Train December 1, Captured at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 24.—(By Associated Press Cable).—To a woman who goes the credit of the capture on the streets of San Francisco last night of the alleged bandit who led the holding up of a Southern Pacific passenger train near El Monte, this State, December 1 last, the man, giving his name as John Bostick, was placed under arrest following his identification by Mrs. Arthur Cole, one of the victims of the holding.

Mrs. Cole was accompanied by her husband. As they were passing through the crowd, the features of the bandit, which made a deep impression on the mind of the woman on the night of the thrilling robbery and subsequent shooting, enabled her to pick out Bostick.

There he goes, whispered Mrs. Cole. Her husband's attention was attracted to Bostick and he also identified him as the bandit. Police were quickly summoned and the alleged train robber was placed under arrest without difficulty.

Bostick is being held in prison pending further investigation as to his movements at the time of the robbery.

Lawyers of Hilo Meet in Great Harmony to Consider Court Rules.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser). HILO, December 21.—A meeting of attorneys took place here last week, which is likely to result in the organization of a permanent bar association of the attorneys of this island. The meeting was called at the suggestion of Judge Parsons for the purpose of considering a revised set of circuit court rules.

Practically all the members of the local bar attended, among those present being Attorneys W. H. Smith, Russell, Irwin, Guntz, Hagan, Melville, Wise, Correa, Shipman and Purdum. Mr. Guntz was chosen chairman and Mr. Irwin, secretary, and rules were discussed with care and attention. It was wonderful to see the harmony which prevailed among these gentlemen who are generally seen only when opposing each other before the courts, and when they enjoyed a luncheon at the Hilo Hotel, at which they were the guests of Judge Parsons, the spirit of good fellowship was so thick it could be cut with a knife.

The discussion of various rules lasted until four o'clock, and even then the task was not completed, but an adjournment was taken in order that another session or two may be devoted to the finishing of the work. When the rules have been decided upon, they will be sent to Honolulu, where they must receive the approval of the supreme court before they become valid.

The discussion of rules relating to the disposition of funds entrusted to guardians, administrators and executors was particularly full. It was decided that the most strict possible accountability must be insisted upon from such persons, particularly for the purpose of preventing the use for private purposes of the custodians of funds entrusted to their administration and care. The drafting of rules to cover this subject was left to the chairman, who will discuss the matter with the trust company, as some of these present thought that it stood on a different footing from guardians and administrators of other characters. A rule to cover the subject will be submitted by the chairman at the next meeting.

Words From Home

Statements That May Be Investigated—Testimony of Honolulu Citizens.

When a Honolulu citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experiences, you can rely on his sincerity. Home endorsement is the kind of testimony that Jack Deane's backache kidney pills. Such a statement is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below are the words of a Honolulu resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

James C. L. Armstrong, Sunnyside Valley, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for three years, and Deane's Backache Kidney Pills completely cured me. I have had no return attack of the complaint since, and consequently I cannot recommend this remedy too highly."

Deane's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storeskeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of order to the Ballister Drug Co., Honolulu, who will ship to the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Deane's, and take no substitute.

WIRTZ SAYS HE WILL GIVE UP JOB

Chairman of Civil Service Commission, Believing He Has Done His Duty in Organizing Board, Says He Will Decline to Accept Reappointment If It Is Offered to Him.

According to the latest developments Mayor Fern will not have to worry about his legal right to appoint members of the civil service commission. The members of the commission on that they have never considered they were appointed to hold over until next year, but only to fill an unexpected term.

Speaking on this subject at lunch yesterday, Chairman Ambrose J. Wirtz, of the civil service commission, said: "There is a mistake in the statement of the mayor that there is any difference of opinion between himself and the members of the commission regarding his right of appointing to the commission on January 1 next. We consider that our term expires on that date, as we feel that we were appointed to fill an unexpected term, and from what I know of the feelings of my colleagues in this matter, as well as my own feelings, we would not accept a reappointment, even if it was offered to us."

"I know that this is the case with Commissioner Kapiha and myself, although I am not so certain as to the stand of Commissioner Doyle. The question of the eligibility of Commissioner Kapiha and myself, as members of the legislature, to hold the positions on the civil service commission has never been settled, and until this is done would positively refuse to accept a reappointment."

"Our idea in accepting the positions in the first place was to get the commission started along the right lines, as both Mr. Kapiha and myself fought in the legislature for the law creating this commission."

MICHIGAN MAY PLAY HARVARD NEXT SEASON

ANN ARBOR, Michigan, December 14.—There are fair prospects for a football game between the University of Michigan and Harvard next autumn. The university board of control discussed the invitation for a game recently received from the Harvard authorities and then forwarded, what one of the members termed, a "proposition to Cambridge." It was announced that any publicity concerning negotiations must come from the Harvard officials.

Before the Regents met Philip Bartelme, athletic director, said he did not favor playing Harvard at Cambridge next season unless the Wolverines were promised a game to be played at Ann Arbor in 1915.

WILL HOLD THEIR RANK.

News of a new system of continued promotion was received at the headquarters of the Hawaiian Department yesterday. The order is to the effect that all sergeants who have been detailed from the regular army to the militia of the various states or this Territory, as instructors or organizers, shall retain their rank when returned to their own regiments. Heretofore when the sergeant was returned to his regiment he lost his former rank. Now he will hold it ready to step into the first vacancy.
